Incorporating Competencies into APHL’s Fellowship Programs

Heather Roney, MA
Manager, Fellowship Programs
APHL Fellowship Programs

- Antimicrobial Resistance
- Bioinformatics
- Environmental Public Health
- Infectious Diseases
- Newborn Screening
Core Curriculum

- Quality Management System
- Ethics
- Management and Leadership
- Communications
- Emergency Management and Response
- General Laboratory Practice
- Safety
- Surveillance
- Research
Introduction to Public Health Labs
Core Functions

1. Disease Prevention Control and Surveillance
2. Integrated Data Management
3. Reference and Specialized Testing
4. Environmental Health and Protection
5. Food Safety
6. Laboratory Improvement and Regulation
7. Policy Development
8. Public Health Preparedness and Response
9. Public Health Related Research
10. Training and Education
11. Partnerships and Communication
Mission, Vision and Values

Mission – a declaration of the organizations reason for being. It answers the question ”What do we do?”

Vision – communicates how the organization aspires to serve the community. It answers the question ”Why are we here?”

Values – describes the most important beliefs of the organization. It answers the question “Who are we?”
Each webinar includes

• Introduction to competency
• Learning objectives
• Fellow profile
• Case study
• Discussion questions
Questions?

Heather Roney
Manager, Fellowship Programs
APHL
240.485.2778
heather.roney@aphl.org

For more information see www.aphl.org/fellowships