

Appendix A: Surveillance Sampling Process Map

Influenza testing occurs in a variety of settings, including physician office laboratories and primary care settings, hospital and commercial laboratories and local and state PHLs. The influenza test results data from all these groups contribute to the domestic US influenza virus surveillance system show below in surveillance sampling process map.

Baseline of Surveillance Specimen and Data Submission Process

